2025 Lois Dahlberg Memorial WalkATHon

This years WalkATHon was a roaring success by any measure.

Good weather, more participants, a few laughs and the most money raised a this event since I have been the chair.

As usual I have to thank all my faithful helpers. Danny Scott, Patti Houchin, Sharon Jacobs, Abby Anderson, and my go to guy, Sam Scott. With an honorable mention to Gus Scott. He brought the moral support as he was injured in the Wallace football game Friday night...they won!

The event was kicked off by Kellogg Mayor Rod Plank. A prayer was led by Ed Warren Youth Pastor at Silver Valley Worship Center.

We raised a whopping $11,385. Over half that amount was a donation from the estate of Lois Dahlberg. Lois was always a faithful participant and one of the top contributors.. She was represented by her daughter Susan.

We had over 20 walkers this year and everyone selected a prize from a wide array donated by our loyal local community. Way to go Dave Smith! Thanks for the generous donation.

Until next year - Thanks all.

- Penny Michael

Gus Scott Danny Scott (holding banner). Sharon Jacobs Abby Anderson Patti Houchin. Dave Smith pledged $500 again this year.

Judy Blalack and Bob Whitman pose with Susan Dahlberg holding the prize she chose donated by the Past-Present Shoppe. We wished to honor Susan's mother, Lois Dahlberg, at this event before we learned she had left a significant bequest for the Walk.

Public Relations Chair, Judy Blalack, welcomes everyone and introduces Kellogg Mayor Plank, who congratulates the Fuller Center on its accomplishments.

"If they obey and serve Him, They shall spend their days in prosperity, And their years in pleasures."

-Job 36:11

An attentive audience listens to Mayor Rod and to pastor Ed Warren of the Silver Valley Worship Center.

Susan brought a nice support group to the Walk.

Then all clap when Mayor Rod announces the event can begin.

Judy and Chevy met Patsy Lemieux, Brad Johnson, and Darrell Lemieux on their way back.

Judy and Bob amble along on the right while joggers, Aubrey Parks and Maryjane Schuljak quickly pass on the left. Maryjane's brother Rune had already run by and let us know he was in "first place."

We enjoyed the Schuljak family with all their energy. Shown here are Rune, Maryjane, Oakley, Édith, Jack in mom, Jayne's arms, and neighbor, Judy Blalack. They look forward to tasting the candy bouquet donated by Valley Violets.

Mom Jayne with Millie & Jack waves as they meet Judy the slowpoke on the trail.

Oakley Schuljak grins as she greets us .

Bob claims Idaho as his prize. It was made by Sam Scott at Mine Fab.

Édith Schuljak has a happy smile as she jogs past.

What is the Fuller Center for Housing?

The Fuller Center for Housing, faith-driven and Christ-centered, promotes collaborative and innovative partnerships with individuals and organizations in an unrelenting quest to provide adequate shelter for all people in need worldwide.

The Fuller Center creates partnerships within communities that bring together churches, schools, businesses and civic organizations to build decent, affordable homes in partnership with people who are unable to secure adequate housing by conventional means.

The Fuller Center works in collaboration with our covenant partners, other service-oriented organizations and countless volunteers to build and repair homes. All homeowners work hand-in-hand with volunteers to build their own homes, which are then sold to them on terms they can afford, based on the Biblical idea of no-profit, no-interest loans.

With some smaller renovation projects, an innovative payment program called The Greater Blessing Program is utilized, whereby recipients promise to repay the loan amount without signing an actual mortgage agreement. They decide the monthly amount they can afford to repay and the period of time that it will take to repay the cost of repairs. There is no legal obligation to repay these loans. It is a leap of faith in the basic goodness of humankind and is proving to be very successful.

We are committed to good stewardship and work hard to keep our administrative costs low and to select our recipient families wisely. This helps to ensure that the vast majority of your tax-deductible gifts go toward building and repairing homes for those in need.
